

Accelerate Your Career with a Master's Degree in Health Sciences

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	Page 2
Master of Science in Health Sciences	Page 3–5
Master of Science in Health Care Administration	Page 6–8
Contact Excelsior	Page 9

EXCELSIOR COLLEGE

Flexible.
Fully Accredited.
Online.

Focused on Your Career

Our online Master of Science in Health Care Administration and Master of Science in Health Sciences programs are designed to help you pivot your career or advance your current position—wherever you are in the world.

Master of Science in Health Care Administration

Master of Science
in Health Sciences

Master of Science in Health Sciences

Prepare for career advancement by increasing your knowledge of evidence-based health practice in the workplace. This fully online master's in health sciences program teaches you how to lead and motivate health care teams, research electronic documents, analyze and propose new policies, and solve problems on the job in health care settings.

CONCENTRATIONS AVAILABLE IN:

→ PUBLIC HEALTH

36
credit hours

No GMAT or GRE required

Transfer up
to 18 credits

Master of Science in Health Sciences

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- ▶ Develop communication strategies to effectively convey complex thoughts and ideas.
- ▶ Research practice-related issues and challenges.
- ▶ Apply leadership skills in managing people and programs.
- ▶ Analyze new and emerging trends within the health care industry.
- ▶ Leverage knowledge of health care policy to guide your professional practice.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- ▶ The average median salary for holders of an a master's degree in health sciences degree is $76,000 (Source: payscale.com)
- ▶ Master's degree graduates work as occupational therapists, dietitians, and health research coordinators (Source: BLS)
- ▶ More than 5 million job openings in the health sciences are expected nationwide by 2026 (Source: BLS)

“Excelsior was the right choice for me...the teachers had lots of resources. They were always willing to answer questions and to get you to where you needed to go. Excelsior changed my life by helping me achieve a higher degree than I ever imagined for myself.”

KANEESHA ROARKE

Master of Science in Health Sciences, 2019

Master of Science in Health Care Administration

Learn about the business side of health care and prepare for advancement in hospitals, outpatient facilities, and other health care settings by completing this fully online health care administration master's degree. You can complete the program while you continue to work in clinical, managerial, or administrative positions in health care or other industry sectors.

36 credit
hours

No GMAT or GRE required

Transfer up
to 18 credits

Master of Science in Health Care Administration

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- ▶ Learn effective communication strategies within a health care environment.
- ▶ Apply leadership techniques to influence others and impact organizational challenges.
- ▶ Integrate principles of risk management and quality improvement.
- ▶ Implement financial management and human resource practices.
- ▶ Apply ethical standards to resolve policy and legal issues in health care.
- ▶ Analyze contemporary issues impacting the health care environment.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- ▶ Top careers in health care administration include informatics, finance, and hospital management (Source: BLS)
- ▶ The average median health services manager salary is $98,350 (Source: BLS)
- ▶ Pay for health care professionals has increased 10–20 percent over the past 10 years (Source: healthcarefinancenews.com)

“Because of my work schedule, I was unable to take daytime classes or night school. Excelsior fit into my lifestyle and helped me advance my career.”

JENNIFER BUYCE
BS in Health Sciences, 2015

QUESTIONS?

Contact Admissions

888.647.2388

gradadmissions@excelsior.edu